Day 1 -Tuesday 22th May 2018

After registration the Seminar started at 10:30 as it was planned by Agenda. Welcome speech was held by full professor Mirjana Stojaković. Professor Stojaković welcomed the project partners on behalf of the Faculty, and she emphasized her hopes that all planned activities during the Seminar will be successfully realised.

After introductory address representatives of University of Alba Iulia - Dan Iordachescu and Teodora Iordachescu briefly presented the work activities that will be realized during the two-day Seminar, and they started with the first task.

The first block – Transversal competences – Interpersonal skills

The first task involved activities related to socialization - making friends. Participants were divided into pairs and seminar leaders gave the material to the attendees with tasks - To determine which activities they had in common, participants had to do a task from the perspective of the child. I like to play? My favorite thing to do is ?, I live with my? I love to eat?... Each pair presented what they did. The next activity for this task was to determine the role of teachers during these activities, each pair presenting what they did.

Second task was - understanding the emotions of other people with an emphasis on the importance of developing empathy in children. The participants were divided into four groups. The seminar leaders gave the material on the basis of which the participants did this task, the groups presented what they did.

After this task was followed by a break for lunch and coffee 13:00 to 14:00

After a break, the next task followed - self-awareness and mixed emotions (leaders gave the material - for each situation below, what feelings would you have?) - The participants presented what they did, discussion. The second task was dealing with anger towards others - Think of the recent situation in which you were angry and did not manage anger well. What happened? How did you react? The groups presented what they did.

End of the first day of the seminar at 16:00.

Day 2 – Wednesday 23th May 2018

The first block – Transversal competences – Interpersonal and intrapersonal skills

Activities of the second day of the seminar concerned the continuation importance of empathy: Seminar leaders gave material related to the definition of empathy, activities for students, activities for children, discussion questions. The task were to describe emotions in certain situations - How would you feel in each situation? How could you handle the change in a way that would help? The groups presented what they did.

Within that followed the task about dealing with anger of another person? Role - play this scenario for the group 2. Role - Play this modified scenario for the group? - Problem solving communications skills. Activities related to the way to cope with change and with other people's anger. The groups presented what they did.

Lunch break and the end of the second day of the seminar at 14:00.

The materials that followed the activities of the seminar for all the participants were provided by moderators - „1 DECEMBRIE“ University of Alba Iulia.
